JAPAN'S STAND SEEN AS MENACE

Willing to Discuss Disarmament But Not Far East Problems

BALKS AT CHINA

Washington, However, Will go Ahead With Formal Invitations—Others May Attend

Washington, July 15.—Although it was officially announced yesterday that the first disarmament conference in history is now assured and that the next step will be the dispatch of official and formal invitations bearing the time and place, there is profound disappointment in Administration circles over the fact that the Japanese have failed to assent to the inclusion of Pacific problems in the scope of the conference.

A response was received from the Japanese Government yesterday indicating the willingness of that nation to participate in a congress of powers called to discuss a limitation of armaments. But Tokio very significantly remained silent upon the question of debating Far Eastern issues.

Officials of the State Department still hope that Japan will come into the conference without reservation, but it seemed far from likely that she will consent to an international conclave that involves all her foreign problems, but which omits the mention of problems such as Ireland, Turkey and Russia, which are causes of friction and armaments in other parts of the world.

If Japan or any other sovereign power represented at the conference refuses to subscribe to the conclusion of a majority the conference will fail. As has been pointedly stated by officials of this Government, no program or policy adopted by a majority may be imposed upon a minority. The conference can only succeed in its highest purposes by unanimous assent to a plan of action.

It is more than ever evident that the point which is sticking deepest into the Japanese mind was the decision of the United States to include China among the governments to sit in the conference. Japanese statesmen, it is said, resent this and are convincer that it is absolutely futile to expect China and Japan to agree upon policies with respect to the future of Asia. If by dissenting, China can defeat the purposes of the conference, it is held by Japanese that the conference already is a failure.

These facts, however, will not deter the American Government in following the program tentatively adopted for the conference. China has accepted the invitation wholeheartedly and will be represented. This means that six powers, and possibly others, will have a hand in the proceedings.

Belgium and the Netherlands have intimated that they would be pleased to participate in the conference inasmuch as each has important interests in the Far East. Whether an invitation is to be extended to them is a matter for future determination. There will be considerable informal diplomatic conversation on the part of the Big Six group before the invitation list is extended.

Even if Belgium and the Netherlands are not included formally in all likelihood they will be asked to send unofficial observers to the conference, as will all other nations which may feel a vital interest in the outcome of the deliberations.

The original invitation list, it is announced, was limited to those governments, which maintain heavy armament either on land or sea. Thereafter China was added when it seemed desirable to bring Far Eastern questions into the discussion. A line necessarily had to be drawn somewhere and it was drawn at that point to prevent the conference becoming unwieldly. This is the reason why other nations were not invited to participate.

Whether or not the British dominions of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa participate in the conference is soley a question for the British Government to decide, it was stated in official circles. The probabilities are, however, that one or more of the dominions will be represented.

That there will be a Democrat on the American mission also is expected, and while teh names of former Secretary Colby, former Secretary Bryan, Minority Leader Underwood, Seantor Hitchcock, ranking Democrat on the Foreign Relations Committee, and others have been suggested, no intimation has come from any official source as to the President's probable choice.

State Officers

Only Three Contests on in Democratic Primary August 2

Of the eight offices that will be filled by the voters of the State in the Democratic primary to be held, August 2, there are contests in but three, those for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and for the State Corporation Commissior. For Governor and Lieutenant-Governor the fight is a warm one, but the contest for State Corporation Commission is exciting no interest. Those who are candidates for the Democratic nomination are:

For Governor—E. Lee Trinkle, of Wythe, and Harry St. George Tucker of Lexington.

For Lieutenant-Governor—W. Bullitt Fitzhugh, of Northampton; Kenneth N. Gilpin, of Clarke; Julien Gunn, of Henrico, and Junius E. West of Suffolk.

State Corporation Commission—Berkley D. Adams, Charlotte, and E. C. Folkes, of Richmond.

Attorney-General—John E. Saunders, of Middlesex.

Secretary of the Commonwealth—B. O. James, of Richmond.

Treasurer—Charles A. Johnson, of Montgomery.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—Harris Hart, of Roanoke.

Commissioner of Agriculture—Geo. W. Koiner, of Richmond.

The last five named having no opposition, will be declared the nominees of the party, and their names will not appear on the ticket. Democrats who vote in the primary, are, however, bound to support them as well as those whose names appear on the ticket.

Chautauqua Next Year

The third season of the Alexandria Chautauqua, just closing, has been very successful, and the public-spirited men and women who have sponsored it deserve praise and congratulation for their efforts.

The guaranty has been raised for next year from fifteen to eighteen hundred dollars. This will not mean the sale of an increased number of tickets, however, since the price of the season tickets will be three dollars instead of two dollars and a half, as heretofore. These entertainments, which Alexandria has enjoyed for the past three years, are perhaps the most enjoyable events of the year. Singly, they would cost ten or twelve dollars at usual prices. They are of the highest class, and not only furnish pleasure to the entire community, but are highly instructive, as well. There can, of course, be no question as to their continuance for next year.

BOSTON BOYS MARCH FOR CHEAPER ICE CREAM

Boston, July 15.—The boys of Boston have always resented anything that interfered with their seasonal enjoyment. In 1775 they braved the wrath of the British General Gage to make protest against military encroachment on their coasting places on Boston Common. Yesterday they marched again, in protest against prices that have curtailed their enjoyment of ice cream.

As in Revolutionary times they went to Deacon Hill with their protest, but today it was a smiling and perspiring representative of the governor that they presented their petition. Enroute to the State House they stopped at City Hall to make a similar protest to mayor Peters.

Governor and mayor were asked to bring down the price of ice cream cones.

"Our fathers cannot buy them for pettion said. "Please make the ice cream dealers do right."

In the demonstration girls joined with their brothers.

G.O.P. State Ticket

Col. Henry W. Anderson Nominated For Governar

Norfolk, Va., July 15.—All nominations at the Republican Convention were by acclamation. The following ticket was selected:

Governor—Colonel Henry W. Anderson, of Richmond.

Lieutenant-Governor— State Senator John H. Hassinger, of Abingdon.

Attorney-General—Harry K. Wolcott, of Norfolk.

State Treasurer—J. W. Flannagan, Radford.

Secretary of the Commonwealth—T. X. Parsons, Grayson County.

State Corporation Commissioner—Gilbert Twigg, Fauquier County.

Commissioner of Agriculture—Jacob S. Haddeman, Shenandoah County.

uperintendent of Public Instruction—Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis Otey, of Lynchburg.

Mrs. Robert F. Hudson, of Richmond, who was prominently mentioned in connection with this nomination, withdrew early in the day in favor of the choice of the committee when she learned that Mrs. Otey already had secured many pledges of support. The name of Miss Ruth Hudson, of Luray, was likewise withdrawn The Richmond woman made no fight for place on the ticket.

In his speech, Colonel Anderson exhorted the men and women of the Republican party to begin the campaign tomorrow. "Start the fighting now," he urged. "Enlist the women. Remember that 200 women's votes in each county in the State will alone suffice to win the election."

Atlantic City Breezes

Columbian Players to Present "All Aboard" Next Wednesday and Thursday

It is not possible for every body in Alexandria to go to Atlantic City next week, but a trip to the Lyceum on either Wednesday or Thursday evenings of the coming week will be equal to a run down to Atlantic, without the accompanying expense and exertion.

When the Columbian Players produce "All Aboard" at the Lyceum there will be such an abundance of real mirth and refreshing entertainment that will make the hall feel like some consoling Winter breezes were passing through. The boardwalk attractions of Atlantic City will have nothing on the attractions that the latest Columbian success will have in store next week. One of the special scenes portrays the ocean front and boardwalk at Atlantic City, and Atlantic City lovers will feel perfectly at home in viewing this particularly attractive and beautiful setting.

The proceeds of the affair will be devoted to charity, and everybody is invited to come and enjoy themselves.

SALVATION ARMY PLANS PLAYGROUND

New Grounds to Open Monday at Lee and Wilkes Streets

TO SELECT LEADERS

Capt. McIntyre to be In Charge—Had Previous Experience—S. Rwy., Grants Use of Ground

On Thursday, July 7th, Captain McIntyre, of the Salvation Army, held an open air service on the grounds of the Southern Railroad at Lee and Wilkes streets.

Great crowds of men, women and children, were attracted, and all enjoyed the band the community sing ing that he encouraged, as well as the address he made. This was entirely free, no collection taken, merely an effort to reach the people and to give them pleasure.

Mrs. T. Clifton Howard, as chairman of the Social Service Committee of Salvation Army, has asked Captain McIntyre to take over the work of a playground and establish a center on the grounds he selected to hold his open air service Thursday week.

The first approached Mr. George R. Buddin, superintendent of the Southern Railroad here, who gladly granted her the use of the grounds, and on Monday, July 18th, the play grounds will open under the care of Captain McIntyre. In this line of work he is especially happy, having had large experience in boys and girls training, his success at Church Hill, Richmond, was pronounced. Not only will he be constantly on the grounds himself, but he will select leaders and train them in playground life. The object of which is to properly direct the energies of youth. This local playground organization is a member of the National Recreational Association of America and the secret of the play ground activities is that it entertains while giving physical development and through the story telling how opens up a vast vista of intellectual delights from the classics of the nursery to the stories of chivalry and adventure.

The playgrounds is one of the greatest agencies in depleting the juvenile court and the reform school.

It is one of the divisions of work mapped out by the Salvation Army to aid in safe guarding the youth of the town, and Mrs. Howard is happy to give this opportunity to Alexandria, through her department of the Salvation Army.

HUNGER STRIKER QUITS; BUT DOCTORS LOSE HOPE

Chicago, July 15.—Hunger triumphed yesterday over the obstinates will of Andrew Bryk, jlo, who went on a hunger strike in the county jail seven weeks ago. A glass of milk, an orange and a plum, laid temptingly within his reach, broke his fast. He ate both orange and plum and drank the milk.

Physicians said his condition was improved today, but they entertain little hope for his recovery.

Budget Estimates

Governor Davis Sets October For Filing Estimates

Richmond, Va., July 15.—Governor Westmoreland Davis has set October 1, 1921, as the date by which all estimates and requests are to be filed with him for consideration in connection with the 1922-1924 State budget. The fina dated is set one month earlier this year than in 1919 to enable a more careful consideration of the estimates than was possible in connection with the first budget. It is announced that the same classifications and instructions which governed the first budget will be used this year. Copies of the classifications and blank forms already have been mailed from the Governor's Office to all State Departments and institutions and work on the new budget is now actively under way.

Governor Davis has invited members of the two houses of the General Assembly to sit with him again this year during the budget hearings in order that they might be fully informed on all questions involved. From the Senate the Governor has invited Senators Garrett and Holt, and from the House of Delegates Messrs. Brewen, J. Sinclair Brown, and Norris, to constitute his advisory board. The public heamings before the Governor will begin early in October.

The importance of the State budget work is more clearly realized when it is known that the gross authorized expenditures of the Commonwealth for the current biennium have amounted to a total of $44,589,900, of which $23,131,100 are payable from the general fund of the State treasury. The Governor's Office calls especial attention to the fact that of the total gross authorized expenditures for the curren biennium, 36.2 per cent for the first year, and 38.9 per cent for the second year go to education, while 36.2 per cent and 32.5 per cent, respectively, go to roads.

William Gibbs McAdoo will become a member of the general committee of the Manassas Confederate Battlefield Park, according to Clarence J. Owens, chairman of the finance board and will undertake to secure subscriptions to the extent of $1,000 to promote the success of this patriotic enterprise.

Chairman Owens is directing the drive for an initial fund to total $50,000, one-half of which will be used to purchase the Henry farm, where the battle was fought, and the museum now established there; the other half to be used in laying out the park and in erecting monuments, markers and other memorials. He stated also that the committee would launch the campaign throughout the country for State to place their monuments and memorials on the battlefield.

The battlefield park will be located on a magnificent boulevard known as the Lee highway.

Atlanta, Ga., July 15.—When W. H. Butler decided to kill himself with gas he wrote a letter to his brother, mailed it, and then returned to his room and turned on the gas.

The letter, however, was sent special delivery, reached the brother quickly, and Butler is alive today with a probability that he will recover. Butler's brother broke down the door to a hotel room and saved his life.

Sues The City

Mrs. Daisy D. Burton Seeks To Recover $10,000 For Injuries

A motion for judgment for the sum of $10,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained by stumbling over a stone on a sidewalk has been filed against the city of Alexandria by Mrs. Daisy D. Burton, wife of Robert Burton, of Datona, Fla., through Attorney R. W. Stump.

It is alleged that on June 7 last while walking on Fairfax street between Wolfe and Wilkes street, a big piece of stone, formerly used as a step, had been removed and was in the center of the sidewalk and that Mrs. Burton stumbled over it in the darkness and fell, injuring herself to such an extent that hospital treatment was necessary.

Some preliminary motions in the case are scheduled to be heard next Tuesday in the Corporation Court before Judge Robinson Moncure.

THIS BOVINE SAW RED AND CAMPERS SCOOTED

York, Pa., July 15.— E. C. Tyson, Lester Tyson and John Platts, all of this city, camping near Sprenkle's mill, not far from Wrightsville, had an illustration of the old claim that a bull hates red. The boys had painted the top of their tent red and the bull, apparently annoyed at the color made a dart for the tent, tore it down and caused the boys to run for their lives. The bull then took possession of the camping outfit, and, after scattering things about, ate several loaves of bread and other articles of food.

The boys are now looking for a new tent.

IS OPTIMISTIC OVER IRELAND

Lloyd George Calls Meeting With De Valera For Adjustment

URGES PATIENCE

Pays Tribute to King—Must Say Little Now—Two and a Half Hours Parley

London, July 15.—Premier Lloyd George held a council of Ministers at the House of Commons last night to discuss his meeting with Mr. De Valera. Later he proceeded to a dinner of the Liberal Coalitionists, where he received a great ovation.

Apologizing for his late appearance, he said he had been engaged in important tasks during the day and after discharging them had to meet his colleagues and report to his sovereign, who, he declared was taking a very keen and close interest in the procedings and to whose intervention so much was attributable.

"We owe him," added the Premier, "a deep debt of gratitude for this, one of the greatest services he has rendered." This was greeted with loud applause.

With reference to Ireland, Mr. Lloyd George besought his audience not to tempt him into an indiscretion.

"The less said the better at this stage," declared the Premier, "but there is the great fact—that Mr. De Valera, chieftain of the vast majority of the Irish race, has been in a conference for nearly three hours with the Prime Minister of this country, discussing various methods and suggestions, for the settlement of this long, long controversy—an old, bitter, wasteful feud in which there has been for ages long a number of disastrous blunders and end less opportunities lost.

"Let us trust that this one will not be lost. I can only say, after the long discussion, that I am certain we both did our best to secure peace. (Loud cheers.) Beyond that it would not be wise for me to go at this moment because we both have our difficulties to deal with."

Lloyd George and Mr. De Valera had tea together in the Premier's official residence in Downing street yesterday afternoon, and spent more than two hours and a half making clear to each other the circumstances under which they thought Great Britain and the Dail Eireann might be willing to seat delegates at a conference table with representatives of Ulster in an effort to compose age long differences beteween the three parties and settle the Irish question.

The extreme length of the private conversation and the fact that it is said to have ended "amiably" and that an agreement was reached to issue a joint communique is interpreted as a good augury. That the prayers of both peoples for the success of the conference were fervent was shown by the kneeling Irish men and women in Downing street reciting the rosary and singing hyms, while the Archbishop of Canterbury, presiding at a meeting in the national assembly of the English Church, reminded the assembly that the conference was meeting and invited all present to stand for a few moments in silent prayer.

This initial talk between the two leaders, the preliminary nature of which was emphasized by both sides, had at least one remark common to momentous gatherings of statesmen in recent years, for at its conclusion the only word vouchsafed the public was a cryptic joint communique containing the bare announcement that there had been a free exchange of views, in which their relative positions were defined, and that the discussion would be resumed tomorrow.

From both sides, however, it is gleaned that the long conversation was marked by the utmost cordiality, not in the least marred by the candor with which the two viewpoints were presented and left the participants satisfied and able to assure

TODAY'S THOUGHT A people is but the attempt of many to rise to the completer life of one; and those who live as models for the mass are singly of more value than they all.

Browning

The Sea.

Most people love the sea. Whether it is the stirring in all of us of those molecules of the blood that have been transmitted unchanged through countless eons, from the time when our hands and feet were fins, or when our lungs imbreathed through gills instead of nostrils—we shall not attempt to say. But there is something in the "round ocean, girdled with the sky," that allures us with an inexpressible charm. It is a symbol of infinity. It stretches out before us like eternity. The ceaseless lapping of its waves upon the shore in time of calm soothes our tired senses and lulls our brain to moods of tranquil meditation.

For ages before the waters under the heaven were gathered together unto one place, and the dry land appeared, the ocean was our home. It may, therefore, be an ancestral quickening of our pulses that at some time or other in variably invites and beckons us to wanton with its breakers. Time writes no wrinkle on its azure brow; such as creation's dawn beheld, it rolleth now. Lord Byron, from whom we have quoted, speaks again and again of its fascination for him.

There is something human about the sea. Like man, it has its moods of violence and repose. By turns it is cruel or tender. It is ceaselessly yearning, striving for some goal it never attains—like the human heart filled with undying aspirations. It is full of romance because full of mystery. Beyond the horizon what stately galleon may appear, freighted with riches for us, or perchance bearing the loved one for whom we have life-long sought but never found. In its inscrutable depths—so "darkly, deeply, beautifully blue"—what treasures may lie hidden from mortal gaze.

The sea has a purifying influence upon us. It is good that we commune with it now and then. Here in Alexandria, where within a few brief hours we may escape the torrid heat of summer, and leave the equally sultry cares of daily life behind—we should avail ourselves of our good fortune and visit our pre-historic patrimonial domain more often. We shall return refreshed physically and spiritually and ready once more for the never-ending grind of diurnal existence.

INDIAN COUNCIL

On the 21st inst., GEN HARRISON held a council in Franklinton, with the chiefs of the Delaware, Shawanoe, Wyandot and Senaca tribes of Indians, to the amount of about 50. In the General's talk, he observed that he had been induced to call them togethter from certain circumstances having come to his knowledge, which led him to suspect the fidelity of some of the tribes, who had manifested signs of a disposition to join the enemy in case they had succeeded in capturing Fort Meigs. That a crisis had arrived which demanded that all the tribes, which had heretofore remained neutral, should take a decided stand either for or against us.—That the President wished no false friends, and that it was only in advensity that real friends could be distinguished.

.....We cannot recollect the precise remarks that were made by the chiefs who spoke—but Tarhe—the Crane—who is the principal chief of the Wyandots, and the oldest Indian in the western wilds, appeared to represent the whole assembly, and professed, in the name of the friendly tribes, the most indissoluble attachment for the American government, and a determination to adhere to the treaty of Greenville.

.....The General then informed the chiefs of the agreement made by Proctor to deliver him to Tecumseh in case the British succeeded in taking Fort Meigs; and promised them that if he should be successful he would deliver Proctor into their hands—on condition, that they should do him no other harm than to put a PETTICOAT ON HIM—for, said he, none but a COWARD or a SQUAW would kill a prisoner.

The Council broke up in the afternoon; and the Indians departed the next day for their respective towns.

Ovation for Trinkle

(Special to the Gazette)

Richmond, Va., July 14.—With every seat in the house taken, an overflow in the gallery, with halls and doorways crowded, and all late comers turned away, State Senator E. Lee Trinkle, candidate for Governor of Virginia, spoke at the John Marshall High School Auditorium last night to what is conceded to be teh most enthusiastic and receptive political meeting staged in Richmond in many years. The city auditorium being closed for repairs, which could not be completed in time for this meeting, this was the next largest auditorium in the city of Richmond, and could by no means accommodate the crowd that turned out to hear the Wytheville candidate Mr. Trinkle clearly defined his position on taxation, schools and roads, and did not leave the slightest shadow of a doubt in the minds of his audience as to his position on these questions. He denied most vigorously the statement of his opponent made at Woodstock on last Monday, that he has ever said he favored the bond issue. He also answered the insinuation of his opponent at Woodstock that the Hon. George P. Coleman, State Highway Commissioner, is supporting him, by reading a letter signed by Mr. Coleman, in which Mr. Coleman stated that because Mr. Tucker was a kinsman and a very close and intimate friend of Mr. Coleman's family, that he felt he should support Mr. Tucker. He sharply answered his opponents charge that he is a candidate without a platform and with nothing but two dead issues tied to his coat tails, and pointed out the fact that platforms are the work of parties, and not of two militant Democrats, opposing each other in a party primary, and reiterated his previous statements that he stands "squarely on the platform of both the state and national democratic conventions of last year. At this point Senator Trinkle asked his opponent why he failed to abide by the decision of the democratic party when it refused to adopt his "Back to the Constitution" platform at Roanoke in May, 1920. Senator Trinkle's statement that in twenty two years of party service, he had always found the platform of his party good enough for him, and had abided by its decisions, brought forth a great storm of applause. The Senator resented his opponents repeated misstatements of the provisions of the Cocke liquor bill and the opportunity furnished for unscrupulous handling of whisky by physicians and, being himself a professional man, vigorously defended the ethics of the medical profession. Here he paused to read the amended bill voted for by him, which when contrasted with that offered in evidence by his opponent, created a great uproar of laughter and long rounds of applause led by many medical men who were in the audience. Mr. Trinkle's frequent reference to his "old friend, Tthe Times Dispatch," which he said claimed to be the leading democratic paper of the South, and his illustrated statement of the unfairness shown him in every reference to his campaign by this paper through its news columns coupled with the unscrupulous statements of his opponents, which have been played up by that paper so sensationally, coming just at a time when the republican party were nominating a strong ticket for general election. To oppose the Democratic ticket, knifed the party he said, and "left scars for which the party must pay." This made one of the most decided hits of the evening.

Summing up all the provocation for criticism on his part, and denying that he had ever indulged in any personal attacks on his opponent, Senator Trinkle declared that rather than sacrifice his principles, fixed through twenty two years of party service, he would prefer to lose the governorship.

An enormous basket of pink gladiolas, which was presented by Richmond women to Senator Trinkle was immediately dispatched at the Senators request to the residence of Mrs. Valentine who died this morning. Mrs. Valentine's last message to Senator Trinkle had been that she continually prayed God to let her live to cast her vote for him.

Forty-two Confederate veterans came in a body from the old Soldiers' Home and occupied reserved seats and applauded earnestly the son of a fellow comrade of '61.

KELVINATOR
REFRIGERATION WITHOUT ICE

Kelvinator is an electrically operated home refrigerating unit. It fits neatly into the ice compartment of any standard refrigerator doing away entirely with the use of ice as a cooling medium.

Kelvinator is the modern mechanical substitute for ice the ice you have for years used in your refrigerator. Ordinarily one thinks of a substitute as something inferior to the original article. The cold produced by Kelvinator is superior in all points to that of ice. Kelvinator cold is a dry, crisp cold, free from the contamination of ice ponds, wagons and dusty street.

Automatically controlled, it keeps food at a steady refrigerating temperature, and at a daily cost of less than ice.

Kelvinator once installed requires no raw materials in its operation. The one thing necessary to Kelvinate your food and to supply your table with cakes of pure clean ice, is electric current and that is a small amount.

Kelvinator relieves you of one more household responsibility—the responsibility of watching your ice supply.

WHAT KELVINATOR DOES

Goes into the ice chamber of your own refrigerator.

Modernizes the home supplying mechanical refrigeration instead of ice.

Keeps your refrigerator colder than ice.

Keeps your refrigerator at a constant unfluctuating temperature—prevents the decay of foods.

Produces a dry, crisp cold. Melting ice keeps the refrigerator damp.

Prevents contamination from impure ice. All delivered ice is subject to contamination.

Reduces daily cost of refrigeration.

Produces cakes of pure, clear ice for table use, from your drinking water.

Operates by electricity alone—requires no water connections.

Operates automatically—starting and stopping as cold is required.

Makes you master of your own ice box.

DEMAND FOR TANLAC BREAKS ALL RECORDS

Amazing Success Achieved by Celebrated Medicine Not Only Phenomenal, But Unprecedented—Over 20,000,000 Bottles Sold in Six Years—Foreign Countries Clamor for It.

Never before, perhaps, in the history of the drug trade has the demand for a proprietary medicine ever approached the wonderful record that is now being made by Tanlac, the celebrated medicine which has been accomplishing such remarkable results throughout this country and Canada. As a matter of fact, the marvelous success achieved by this medicine is not only phenomenal, but unprecedented.

The first bottle of Tanlac to reach the public was sold just a little over six years ago. Its success was immediate and people everywhere were quick to recognize it as a medicine of extraordinary merit. Since that time there have been sold throughout this country and Canada something over Twenty Million (20,000,000) bottles, establishing a record which has probably never been equalled in the history of the drug trade in America.

Fame Is International

The instant and phenomenal success which Tanlac won when it was first introduced has been extended to practically every large city, small town, village and hamlet in North America. Its fame has become international in its scope and England, Japan, Mexico, Cuba, Hawaii, Alaska, Porto Rico and many European countries are clamoring for it.

From coast to coast and from the Great Lakes, Tanlac is known and honored. Millions have taken it with the most gratifying and astonishing results and have pronounced it the greatest medicine of all time.

Tens of thousands of men and women of all ages in all walks of life, afflicted with stomach, liver and kidney disorders, some of them of long standing, as well as thousands of weak, thin nervous men and women apparently on the verge of collapse, have testified that they have been fully restored to their normal weight, health and strength by its use.

Restored to Health

Still others, who seemed fairly well, yet who suffered with indigestion, headaches, shortness of breath, dizzy spells, sour, gassy stomachs, coated tongue foulness of breath, constipation, bad complexion, loss of appetite, sleeplessness at night and of terribly dejected, depressed feelings, state that they have been entirely relieved of these distressing symptoms and restored to health and happiness by the use of Tanlac.

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr.

RINGS FAKE ALARM TO SHOW FRIEND ADDED ATTRACTION

New York, July 15.—"Haven't seen the fire engine run? Shucks, I'll show you!" said Robert Dillon to a friend from the West to whom Dillon had been showing New York.

Dillon tweaked the hook of a handy fire alarm box. In a few minutes the neighborhood was cluttered up with fire engines, hose carts, hook and ladder trucks, a couple of battalion chiefs, sixty-two firemen and a fire patrol.

"Where's the fire?"—Dillon was asked.

"Fire? No fire at all—just showing the firemen off to Bill here," said Dillon.

Rescue Home Beacons Of Hope

Sixty-eight thousand girls, eight women disappeared from the streets of our cities last year. Six thousand from New York alone. Where are they?

Everywhere throughout the country the great problem of illegitimacy is confronting those who interest themselves in welfare work, but nowhere perhaps has it been met with the practical Christianity shown by The Salvation Army, which through its twenty-six Rescue and Maternity Homes in the United States returns to health, hope and sanity every year, approximately 2,000 unfortunate girls.

A Salvation Army Rescue Home is open to any girl who needs its protection and who otherwise would be forced along the paths to which only heartbreak, despair and disgrace can point. Once admitted, the past is closed behind her, the future thrown open with hope and courage, while besides the best of physical care she receives the spiritual and mental regeneration necessary if that physical care

SUNDAY SCHOOL LEADERS PRESENT SOLID FRONT

Never before in the history of Sunday School work in the United States has there been such enthusiasm among the leaders in the great Protestant denominations. What brought it about? The determination on the part of Sunday School leaders to unite their forces in a great National campaign of religious education for character building and Christian democracy. What is the process? First of all the reorganizing of the Sunday School Council and the International Sunday School Association so that there will be but one great national Sunday School Association. The present campaign being carried on by The Committee of Six representing both organizations is but the initial movement. Yet even this has brought forward expressions of joy and gladness from the mouths of denominational leaders that make one think camp meeting days have struck the entire Protestant world. Dr. John H. Race, Publishing Agent of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Cincinnati, Ohio, says: "Through co-operation, concentration and consecration this field of religious education will be better cultivated under these new auspices," while Dr. Gilbert N. Brink, Geenral Secretary, American Baptist Publication Society, makes the comment that "the fact that 32 co-operating Protestant denominations are represented in it should give assurance of its worth, its importance and its urgency, and should bring a ready response from every friend of the Sunday Schools of our land."

The Disciples of Christ, thru their General Bible School Secretary, Dr. Robert M. Hopkins, consider that "an investment in this fundamental enterprise will bring rich returns to all the churches and to the welfare of the nation." Dr. G. E. Raitt, Associate Secretary, the Board of Home Missions of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, says: "The co-operation in Sabbath School work which will follow the uniting of the Sabbath School leaders of the various denominations with the old International Sunday School Association, marks the beginning of a new era in Sabbath School work. This important work, and there is none which bears so vital a relationship to the future success of our country, has had a marvelous growth, but it ought to go forward now by leaps and bounds." Rev. C. S. Staebler, President Board of Sunday Schools of the Evangelical Association, declares: "The work of Religious Education and Evangelization is so imperatively necessary in our day and generation that no one should withhold the best possible support that he can give to this movement." And he adds, "What is $150,000 among so many friends of this magnificent cause?"

Dr. Rufus W. Miller, Secretary Publication and Sunday School Board of the Reformed Church, speaks as a prophet when he says, "Every dollar contributed to the cause will be seed sown for a blessed harvest in the coming years." And the statement made by Theodore Mayer, General Secretary, the Board of Sunday Schools, Evangelical Synod of North America, is characteristic of what is being thought and said by many others. He says: "The special financial campaign to make possible the new and larger religious educational program of the Association, is not only reasonable but most urgent and deserves the confidence and hearty support of our constituency." Dr. Arlo Ayers Brown, of the Board of Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal Church writes: "Those have faith enough in God and imagination enough to see the possibilities in a new generation of carefully trained Christian citizens will count it a high privilege to invest at once in this agency for the promotion of Christian education."

The headquarters of the campaign are at 5 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago. Dr. Robert M. Hopkins, is campaign director, Mr. Fred A. Wells acting treasurer. $150,000 is the sum sought.

A merchant was recently persuaded to purchase an excellent parrot. This one had traveled far and could jabber in several foreign lingoes. He ordered it sent home. That same day his wife had ordered a fresh spring chicken for dinner. On leaving the house she said to the cook: "Mary, there's a bird coming for dinner. Wring its neck and have it fried hot for Mr. Richards when he gets home." Unfortunately the parrot arrived first and Mary followed instructions. At dinner he was duly served. "What's this?" exclaimed Mr. Richards. Mary told him. "But, for goodness' sakes, Mary," he said, "this is awful. That bird could speak seven languages." "Then, phwy the divil did not he say something?" asked Mary —Exchange.

Miss Evelyn D. Hill, of Richmond, will be added to the Field Service of the Association for the summer months, commencing July 15th, thereby greatly facilitating the follow up work needed in disposing of active cases.

PRAISES HARDING MOVE

Rome, July 15.—The Observatore Romano, the organ of the Vatican, today prints a semiofficial note warmly congratulating President Harding on the initiative he has taken for an international conference on the limitation of armaments.

The American President's action, says the note, is identical with that which Pope Benedict took in August, 1917, when his Holiness wrote to the powers with the object of ending the war, and it adds that the Pope will experience the liveliest pleasure in seeing his prayers realized under the powerful initiative of the United States.

As in her breast the wave of life,
Kept leaving to and fro.
For when the morn came dim and sad,
And chilled with early showers,
Her quiet eyelids had closed,
She had another home than ours.
By her devoted father and mother.
So sad and sudden was the call,
Dear sister your health surprised us all,
But perhaps some day we shall understand,
When we meet you in the better land.

By her brother, Albert.

Oh how sudden was the summons,
When the word came she was dead
Time was too short to say farewell,
To the sister, we loved so well.

By her brother, Edward.

It was an early morning hour,
One year ago today,
The angel of death came down to earth,
And bore our darling mother away
167-1p. Her four children.

TRAINING CAMP FOR YOUNG MEN

TO BE OPENED AT CAMP MEADE, MARYLAND, ON AUGUST 1ST.

NO CHARGES WILL BE MADE

Splendid Opportunity For The Youth Of The State To Secure Valuable And Healthy Experience.

A free summer camp, with all expenses included, railroad fare paid, is offered this summer by the government to 1,200 young men between the ages of 16 and 35 who reside in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. This Citizens' Military Training Camp will last for thirty days, commencing on August 1st, and will be held at Camp Meade, Maryland, about half way between Baltimore and Washington.

Attendance at the camp will not cost one cent to any of the candidates who are selected to go. They may either pay their railroad fare from their homes to Camp Meade and be reimbursed as soon as they arrive at the rate of five cents for each mile traveled, allowing an ample margin for meals and other expenses en route, or if they prefer they will be furnished with a ticket before they leave home and allowed not to exceed $3.00 a day for their meals while travelling.

Upon arriving at Camp Meade each man will be supplied with a complete set of uniforms and equipment. He will then be assigned to quarters in comfortable permanent barracks. When mess call sounds he will find a well-cooked meal all ready for him paid for by the government and prepared by army cooks who are now going through a special course of training at the Camp Meade Cooks' and Bakers' School to prepare them for duty at the camp. All the mess attendants will be supplied from Regular Army regiments stationed at Camp Meade. Should he have need of it at any time he will find a well-equipped hospital free of charge with competent army surgeons and dentists.

In return for this he will be called upon to devote his mornings to military drills and exercises under the direction of officers specially selected from the Infantry School at Camp Benning, Georgia for duty as instructors, and will be encouraged to spend his afternoons in athletics and games under the supervision of officers specially trained to supervise such activities.

While he will live in permanent barracks, he will frequently take short hikes through the beautiful rolling and wooded country of Southern Maryland, carrying the infantry soldier's field equipment and ending the march by going into camp and spending the night under canvas if the weather is good. Some of his meals in the field he will cook for himself in his "mess kit" and others will be served to him from rolling kitchens.

The military part of the day's program will include demonstrations of all the modern military weapons, such as Tanks, Artillery, machine guns and trench mortars by veteran regular troops stationed at Camp Meade, as well as the actual drills in which the candidates will take part. It is hoped that they will become sufficiently interested to affiliate with the National Guard or Organized Reserve when they return to their homes, thus fitting themselves to be leaders instead of followers if they should ever be called upon to serve their country in case of another war, but attendance at the camp involves absolutely no obligation, moral or legal, to perform any further military service.

Off duty hours will be well provided for, and candidates will be encouraged to spend all their time in camp by providing them with amusements so that they will not want to leave it. There will be movies and other forms of entertainment every evening and frequent concerts by some of the fine Regular Army bands stationed at Camp Meade. The religious atmosphere will not be neglected. Two chaplains will devote their entire time to the Citizens' Camp and to the management of a service club where candidates will be entertained in their spare time. Other chaplains of six different denominations on duty with regular troops of the camp will be available for advice and counsel.

The Military Training Camps Association, composed of graduates of previous similar camps held at Plattsburg, New York, and other places, are in active charge of receipt and forwarding of applications through their nearest local representative, Colonel John A. Cutchins, Mutual Assurance Building, Richmond, but if he cannot be conveniently reached, information and application blanks can be secured and arrangements made to obtain without charge the very simple physical examination by writing to the Commanding General, Third Corps Area, Fort Howard, Maryland.

Applications should be forwarded as early as possible, as the final selection of applicants must be made well in advance of the opening of the camp on August 1st. In case the number of applicants exceeds the capacity of the camp, vacancies will be apportioned by counties in proportion to their population, and the individuals selected by a method which will insure that each locality and each individual applicant has an equal chance.

TO BE RAISED TO 25 CENTS BY HAYS

Washington, July 15.—The cost of sending a special delivery letter is to be raised from 10 to 25 cents

Postmaster General Hays, in making the change, is going on the theory that when a person sends a special delivery message he wants the message specially delivered, which is a service that cannot be rendered for a dime. As things are now a messenger gets possibly 100 special delivery letters and starts out with the whole batch, delivering them in the best order he can arrange. The result is that, in most cases, the letters come to their recipients one or several hours after they reach the postoffice.

Frequently it takes longer for a special delivery letter to get its ultimate destination than a letter sent by ordinary mail, with the result that there is a justified protest from an indignant citizen, who passes the world along that the postal service is going to the dogs. With the Government getting 25 cents it will be possible to send a messenger with each letter.

ONLY 8 OF 96 SENATORS HEAR FULL DEBATE ON BONUS BILL

Washington, July 15.—During part of the debate on the Bonus bill yesterday only 8 of the 96 members of the Senate were present. Curtis, of Kansas, was the only Republican on the floor, and the seven Democrats were McKellar, of Tennessee, Harris and Watson, of Georgia; Glass, of Virginia; Stanley of Kentucky; Caraway, of Arkansas, and Heflin, of Alabama.

During the entire day seldom did the attendance exceed 15, although both the Bonus measure and the proposal to refund the Allied loans were under discussion.

FIERCE CLASH IN BELFAST

Belfast, July 15.—A fierce gun duel was fought in the York street and North Queen street areas last night. Sniping, which began yesterday morning, continued almost throughout the entire day, developing early today, into sharp fighting, in which the police and military were obliged to take a hand. Several civilians were wounded.

After 7 o'clock last night the police and military, in armored cars, were virtually powerless to cope with the shooting. Streets were closed to traffic, tramway service was suspended and only motor cars carrying people on most urgent business ventured on the streets.

Ambulance workers were kept busy taking wounded persons to hospitals.

PIGGLY WIGGLY All Over the World

YOUR CONFIDENCE AND OUR APPRECIATION

The owners of PIGGLY WIGGLY have noted with pardonable pride the large number of children—both boys and girls—who every day come to the PIGGLY WIGGLY store with lists for groceries, fruits and vegetables and we feel that this is a sincere mark of the confidence the buying public has in the square dealing at PIGGLY WIGGLY, and also because it's so easy for the little chaps, after looking at their list to find the very articles for which their mother sent them. Every PIGGLY WIGGLY Store, all over the world, has a similar shelf display, and if you locate an article today, you will find one just like it in the same place on your succeeding visits to the store.

IT'S NOT ALWAYS CONVENIENT

for mother to get to the store, and when that happens, think of the little girl or boy at home to run your errands, and how quickly they can rush out to PIGGLY WIGGLY, and be a big man or lady by going around the store and making their own selections. It will be a real pleasure for the future householders to run these errands.

THEY DON'T HAVE TO WAIT

for a clerk to reach them. Nothing like that at PIGGLY WIGGLY. The child waits on itself and if the shelf is beyond it's reach, a polite and accommodating Store Manager is there to assist them, and encourage and please them with attention. All our goods are MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES with the swinging tag, insuring one price to everybody, and that price the lowest in the city.

The Vinegar Hill aggravators defeated the St. Paul's Sunday School team yesterday on the shipyard diamond in a well played and exciting game by the score of 12 to 8.

With the score 8 to 6 in favor of the losers in the 8th inning, Grover, of the aggravators, came to bat with two men on and doubled sending in the tieing runs. After this the aggravators simply walked away with their opponents. The playing of both teams was above the average, Miller sarring for the winners.

The manager would like to arrange games with any team in the city with the exception of the Dreadnaughts and Triple A's. Send challenges to John Woolls, 1106 Wilkes street.

The line up of the agravators was as follows:

Rogers, c.; Scott, p.; Kersey, 1st b.; Dodd, ss.; Miler, 2ndb.; Magner, 3rdb.; H. Snellings lf.; D. White, cf.; J. Snellings, rf.; Grover, 2ndb. Thorpe, lf.

The Vinegar Hill Juniors defeated the St. Paul's Juniors yesterday in a well played game by the score of 10 to 7. Pat Murphy and Ashby Snellings starred for the winners. All teams desiring games should communicate with Thomas Thorpe, 517 South Henry street.

An American tourist in Scotland took a great fancy to a handsome collie he saw, and offered to buy it. The owner asked some questions, and on learning that it was the would-be purchaser's intention to take "Jock" to America he refused to part with the dog.

Just then an English tourist came along, and he also made a bid for the collie, which, tho less than the first offer, was accepted. The American was annoyed, and when the Englishman had departed, he said: "You told me you wouldn't sell your dog."

"Na, na," replied the canny Scot. "I said I couldna part wi' him. Jock'll be back in a day or two never fear. But he couldna swim the Atlantic."—London Opinion.

their colleagues that there were substantial grounds for hope of an ultimate settlement.

Because of Mr. De Valera's accountability to the Dail Eireann for commitments made in behalf of Southern Ireland, it is learned, he was unable to give unqualified replies to some of the Premier's propositions.

The Prime Minister and Mr. De Valera will again be alone together when the discussion is renewed tomorrow. Significant evidence of the hopefulness existing on each side is the summoning to London of Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier. He left Belfast last night.
